Using economic abuse
- Withholding her personal documents i.e. visas, passports, diplomas; Making her pay rent/mortgage for joint residence in which he resides; Refusing to assist with coerced debt; Blocking access to joint economic resources; Interfering with her ability to work/study.

Using children
- Making her pay for activities/needs of child(ren) during his child contact; Spoiling children with expensive gifts to make her feel inferior; Encouraging children to shame her for finances; Refusing to share basic resources for children; Refusing to contribute to additional expenses linked to the children.

Banking
- Refusing to negotiate terms of joint financial products; Using others’ bank accounts to conceal financial resources; Removing all money from joint accounts/savings/children’s savings; Continuing to build debt in her name/joint products; Absconding and leaving her responsible for shared financial products.

Using harassment & intimidation
- Damaging joint property incurring costs; Intimidating & harassing family and friends who are financially supporting her; Using or threatening physical force to get money from her; Stalking her forcing her to change location/name/employment/education.

Using emotional abuse
- Criticising every purchase she makes for their children; Blaming her for children’s financial hardship/shortcomings; Shaming her for her reduced finances; Causing emotional distress/dread over finances.

(Ab)Using court processes
- Purposely using court processes and procedures to exhaust her savings/income, i.e. through child contact, divorce, property, settlement disputes; Not appearing in court resulting in adjournment; Withholding required documents; Making her pay his legal fees.

Manipulating institutions
- Using ‘loopholes’ in legislation to protect his assets; Becoming un/self-employed to avoid spousal support/child support; Refusing to pay child support despite having financial resources; Concealing/refusing to disclose actual income; Tax fraud to avoid financial obligations; Falsely reporting her for benefit fraud.

Consequences of economic abuse
- Ongoing fear of abuse from (ex)partner
